

COMMUNITY COLLEGE FUNDING

Funding Category	Amount Funded per FTES 2012-13	Total FTES Fall 2011	Repeatability	Types of Courses
CREDIT
Degree Applicable	$4,565	1,040,871	Limited	College level courses students take for degree and certificate programs (includes vocational), transfer and employment.
Not Degree Applicable	$4,565 + COLA State Supported	1,113,179	30 semester units per	Content and objectives prepare students for college level work. Credit may be applied to certificates, but not to degrees.
Concurrent Enrollment	$4565 + COLA State Supported		Limited	For high school pupils who would benefit from advanced scholastic or vocational work with the intent to provide enrichment opportunities for a limited number.
CREDIT & NONCREDIT
Basic Skills	Amount allocated based on number of these students at institution.	57,663	Some limits	Courses designed to develop math, reading or writing skills so students may subsequently enroll in a college level course. Funds may be spent to assess, counsel and provide various support services to students, as well as for materials and equipment and curriculum development. Included in both categories, see page 2.
NONCREDIT
Noncredit	$2,745	508,186	No limits	Prepares students to achieve learning goals, including readiness for college level work. Categories 1) Parenting; 2) Elementary and secondary basic skills; 3) ESL; 4) Citizenship for immigrants; 5) Education for disabled;(6) Short-term Voc Ed; 7) Programs for older adults; 8) Home Ec.; (9) Health/Safety.
Enhanced Noncredit	$3,232		No limits	Career development & college preparation courses for which no credit is given. Offered in a sequence of courses leading to a certificate of completion, improved employability, or to a certificate of competency in a recognized career field.
NOT-FOR-CREDIT
Contract Education	Generally, closed to public and not funded by state. Contract must meet all costs.	Usually not counted.	No limits.	Courses meet learning needs of local employers and other public and private organizations. Content and objectives are defined to meet customer's needs.
Community Services	No state funds-fee based.	Not counted.	No limits.	Serves local community interests. Content and objectives are locally defined to meet local students' needs and interests.